When I saw Craig I thought Craig Abrams. You are right that is an incredible update. Show that to Nicole.

Can we meet with him and tell him to stop deputizing people to arrest police? And see what that's about??

Oh Hi!

Below from Craig....

Also no major red flags for those 3 leaders from POIB... other than [REDACTED] has been "deputizing" protestors (signaled by duct tape band on their arm)to arrest police officers.

Good Afternoon Giselle,

Just finished 1430hrs provincial update. Status quo for most of the province. PLT very active and message traffic is heavy, with good updates. Command mapping out resource allocations, who is next to be deployed.

West:

- Hwy 402 Minimal updates- still attempting outreach with organizers
- Bluewater Bridge Sarnia- Protesters on both sides of bridge. PLT in active communication with protesters and allied agencies in the USA
- Convoy to Windsor broke off into two separate routes. PLT followed and monitored. Reports that convoy members ended up at Ambassador bridge.
- Ambassador bridge- Protest for most part has moved on PLT still monitoring. Pedestrian traffic still blocking intersection with POU involved. More pedestrians now, forming prayer circles. Children noted in the area.
- All other protests and convoys being monitored by PLT and are engaged. Several smaller protests and convoys have concluded for the day.

East:

- Ottawa becoming more hostile- BLM march, and noted OMG Black Pistons at Parliament Hill. PLT engaged with barriers being removed around war memorial, all is peaceful there currently.
- Expected approx. 4000 MV from QC did not cross into Ontario.
- Cornwall- PLT engaged with a few organizers and Indigenous Chief and Council. Weather deteriorating with ice and snow. PLT now conducting door knocks around protest location to provide key messaging.
- PLT monitored and reported Landsdowne Bridge had little support and was concluded.

Central:

- Havelock- Completed, no issues
- Meaford- Completed, no issues
- Bracebridge ongoing peaceful
- Huntsville-Complete

- Barrie- 200 MV's, changed routes. Currently in Barrie PS area, off 400 Hwy

HSD:

- QEW closed Niagara remains in effect. Protesters on highway. PLT still in area monitoring
- Working with NRPS
- Toronto under control as reported, no current rolling protests in Toronto controlled OPP area.
- Convoy has left Kingston reported enroute to Niagara- Lavalley has been updated

NE:

- Few protests still ongoing, mainly in parks/open spaces.
- No traffic concerns

NW:

- Two protests being monitored.
- Report of Manitoba border effected by blockade in other province

Will keep you posted if I have anything further.

Craig.

Good Morning Giselle,

Just finished 1030hrs provincial update. PLT actively engaged across province and flavour from all regions is PLT is foremost in keeping things from boiling over.

West:

- Hwy 402 continues to be hot point with some more infrastructure moving in. West Region depending on PLT to continue to engage and monitor
- Ambassador bridge- Protest for most part has moved on PLT still monitoring. Pedestrian traffic still blocking intersection with POU involved.
- Hwy 401 Convoy – PLT engaged, convoy growing in size. PLT in Windsor area need to be aware of size and assist in possible rally point upon arrival to avoid international crossings
- All other protests and convoys being monitored by PLT and are engaged

East:

- Ottawa becoming more hostile
- Expected approx. 4000 MV from QC enroute
- POU and PLT working close together.
- Cornwall- Demonstration and vehicle blockade at bridge. PLT engaged
- PLT monitoring other crossing points

Central:

- Havlock- slow moving protest. No concerns. PLT engaged
- Barrie- Setting up at Sadlon centre. 40 MV involved so far

HSD:

- QEW closed Niagara
- Working with NRPS
- PLT engaged and reporting
- Toronto under control

NE:

- PLT engaged in small convoy/protests. No concerns at moment

NW:

- PLT Monitoring and communicating with detachments
